

Women's foundation of Oklahoma

An Endowed Fund of Communities Foundation of Oklahoma

SINGLE MOTHER STUDENT CAMPUS GRANT APPLICATION

FAQs

Q: What is the focus of the grant making initiative?

A: The Women's Foundation of Oklahoma (WFO) invests in the economic self-sufficiency of Oklahoma women and girls. The current initiative focuses on providing systemic supports for single mother students on Oklahoma public higher education campuses.

Q: How much is the award?

A: WFO grants will range from $1,000 to $5,000 with the number of awards dependent on the funds available and quality of applications.

Q: What will the grant fund?

A: The needs of single mother students varies on campuses across our state. This initiative asks each campus to evaluate the needs of this special population and design supports, programs and/or events to address those needs.

Q: Is there anything the grant will not fund?

A: Yes, it will not fund capital campaigns or scholarships.

Q: What is the application process and when is the grant due?

A: The grant is available online at www.wfok.org and the submission deadline is Thursday, May 2, 2019.

Q: If our college/university was funded last year, may we reapply?

A: Yes, WFO does not limit its support of programs serving single mother students to a single award.

Q: What are the requirements if awarded?

A: Grantees are required to submit a final evaluation report with statistics included. Representatives from the awarded institutions are also required to participate in a convening in OKC.

Q: How can I get more information and assistance in preparing this grant submission?

A: Contact Erika Warren, Director of Programs by email at ewarren@cfok.org or by phone at (405) 488-1450.
